

D*I*Y Planner Hipster PDA Edition v3.0 Core Package

Welcome to the D*I*Y Planner system, developed by Douglas Johnston of DIYPlanner.com. This series of free do-it-yourself, printable forms covers life management, calendars, project planning, notetaking, finance, and creative uses like writing, storyboards, and photography. This Hipster PDA Edition package contains approximately a hundred printable templates and covers, and on our site, you'll also find a detailed handbook brimming with advice, a beginner's guide to setting up your own customised planner system, and a community of helpful people ready to share ideas and new templates of their own. With some basic supplies and a little elbow grease, you can create an ideal low-cost kit that meets almost every need.

This the D*I*Y Planner v3 Core Package, the main file for the system, containing scores of forms for life and project management, as well as a number of generic templates and various odds and ends.

The most recent version of this package, along with the rest of the printable template kits, can always be found at:

http://www.diyplanner.com/templates/official/hpda

The DIYPlanner.com site also contains handbooks, how-to guides, and numerous articles that can help you make the most of your planner. Visit the site home page or the documents section to get started.

The Helpful Hipster PDA Reference Card

The Hipster PDA is, in its simplest form, just a stack of index cards clipped together. This concept, popularised by Merlin Mann of the site 43 Folders, caught fire among the productivity mavens looking for a task management solution that was portable, cheap, and paperbased. (For more information, see www.HipsterPDA.com.)

Not content to leave things simple, many sought ways to pack more and varied information into their stacks. They wanted special lists, calendars, lined note areas, graph paper, project management forms, and more. In answer to this, Douglas Johnston created a subset of his popular (and free) D*I*Y Planner forms that could be printed onto index cards.

Today, the D*I*Y Planner Hipster PDA Edition v3 consists of more than eighty easy-to-print forms including :

- → Daily, monthly and yearly calendars
- → Checklists for actions, pending tasks, & potential projects
- → Several business, financial & project management cards
- → Cards for storyboards, plot construction, & other creative uses
- → Folding covers with attractive graphics
- → Tabbed cards for stack dividers
- → A Getting Things Done (© David Allen) quick reference card
- → Tables, lists, trackers, & much, much more...

The printable Hipster PDA kits can be downloaded free of charge at www.diyplanner.com, along with versions for regular size planners.
